Studio12

Studio 12 Exhibition Guidelines

MISSION:

To assist art practitioners with subsidised exhibition space to achieve and assist in their creative development. To develop audiences that encourage both community and professional interaction with visual art.

Proposals to exhibit in Studio 12 can be emailed to James Winter — james@queenstreetstudio.com

Your (maximum 2) page proposal should include the following:

- Brief bios of all artists involved
- Clear articulation of the conceptual rationale of the work to be exhibited
- Benefit of the exhibition to the development of the artist/artists' work practice
- Potential dates and duration of the exhibition (3-weeks max)
- (Optional) 3 x low resolution photos of the artist/s work to be exhibited.

Engagement with the local surroundings of Chippendale and the CBD is highly encouraged.

All artists interested in applying are encouraged to contact James Winter — james@queenstreetstudio.com to view the space prior to submitting a proposal.

PLEASE NOTE: Hirers of Studio 12 will need to consider noise disturbance of neighbours and especially hirers in Studio 14 which is directly adjoining. Exhibitions involving sound are not appropriate for this space.
